MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Assistant General Counsel

SUBJECT:

Schrager, Klemens, and Krueger, Inc. v.
Cambridge Systems Group Inc.

REFERENCE:

Memo for GC, Attn: [REDACTED] from DDA,
dtd 18 Jun 81; subj: Request for Legal Assistance (DD/A 81-1286; OGC 81-05142)

1. Reference identified possible involvement of Agency employee [REDACTED] in subject litigation. The undersigned has contacted Mr. Dickie, the attorney for Schrager, Klemens, and Krueger, Inc., and been advised that, as currently postured, the case will probably not require [REDACTED] testimony. That position is not fixed in concrete, however, and depends in large measure on the decision of the judge as to the extent of discovery or evidence he will allow.

2. We have advised Mr. Dickie that [REDACTED] involvement would be disruptive to Government activities and that we would prefer not to have him testify (either in person or by deposition). In Mr. Dickie's view, however, the Government is a "blue chip" customer and its testimony would undoubtedly be viewed favorably by the court.

3. I advised Mr. Dickie that we would continue to monitor the case and reach a decision regarding our position on the testimony of an Agency official. Mr. Dickie, in turn, agreed to keep us advised of developments in the case and, particularly, any need for an Agency official to testify.
